In collaboration with the Hawaii’s Plantation Village and the Filipino-American Historical Society of Hawaii, please join us for.....

The Sakada Series
documentary film screening

Thursday, December 29, 2016
6:00 – 8:00pm

at the Hawaii’s Plantation Village
94-695 Waipahu Street
Waipahu, HI 96797

The Sakada Series is a series of three short films:

A Sakada Story (10min) highlights the life story of Cipriano Erice, who immigrated to Hawaii in 1946 to work as a laborer for the Waialua Sugar Plantation.

Living Treasure (10min) highlights the life story of Angel Ramos, who immigrated to Hawaii in 1946 to work for the Kahuku Sugar Plantation.

Filipina (15min) highlights the life story of Apolonia Agonoy Stice, a second-generation Filipina-American who grew up in the pineapple plantation town of Lanai City.

Screening schedule:

6:00-6:30pm – Doors open. Experience Hawaii’s Plantation Village’s plantation exhibit.

6:30-7:10pm – The Sakada Series film screening

7:10-7:40pm – Q&A with the filmmaker, Maribel Apuya and the documentary stars. Refreshments and light Filipino pupus will be served after the Q&A.

The event is free and open to the public.

Major grant funding and sponsorship has been provided by: